

Steam Trains and Fairytales at Butterley 23-24 May 2026

SATURDAY PROGRAMME
Time	Feature	Location	Description
Untimed Features The Midland Railway Trust at Butterley Station and Swanwick Junction is a fabulous location with a host of interesting buildings, trains and exhibits guaranteed to keep you entertained for hours. There will be steam and diesel trains running throughout the day. There will also be a steampunk market on the green and in the Johnson's Building in addition to the timed features below. The train timetable is listed separately.
10:00	EVENT START & ILLICIT MARKET	Butterley Station	Get your passport stamped, sort your travel documents, interact with our monster hunters and creatures and get ready to catch the train to Swanwick Junction (the first train leaves at 10:30). While you are waiting, we've heard a rumour that there may be an Illicit Market taking place in the buffet area at Butterley Station between 10:00 and 11:00. If you wish to bring small steampunk items to sell you can do so, but please take any remaining stock back to your horse drawn carriage before catching the train. There will be strictly no illicit trading at Swanwick where the Pie Men are known to be particularly active. Also please keep any trading activities within the buffet area and do not spread out to the platform itself.
10:35	BELLY FUSION DANCE COLLECTIVE	Swanwick Junction	Belly Fusion will welcome you to Swanwick junction with their joyful dance and winning smiles.
11:00	STORIES AND TALES (for adults)	St Saviour's Church	Our storyteller Tan has some short stories and maybe even a poem or two to enchant and entertain you. You can expect magic, witches, steam machines and maybe a very bit rat! Please note this will be suitable for an ADULT audience only.
11:00	WILLOW WAND WEAVING	Johnson's Building	Suitable for all ages, Michelle will help you weave a wand from willow and ribbons, suitable for casting spells for the rest of the day.
12:00	HIGH NOON SHOOTOUT	Swanwick Platform	Join Major Tinker for a High Noon Shootout against the backdrop of 'The train now standing at Platform...' (the 12:00 from Butterley will be due in to Swanwick Junction at 12:04). Expect fun and noise and a few flying nerf darts.  Who will win the contest on behalf of their kind? Will it be a witch or a wizard, a monster or a fairy?

13:00	A SHORT AND COMPLETELY SERIOUS HISTORY OF NIMPH	St Saviour's Church	Join field agent and Dark Museum curator Burn O'Wolf for a lively, tongue-in-cheek exploration of the secret history of Britain's legendary monster-hunting organisation, NIMPH. From its fiery founding in 1666, through its eccentric steampunk heyday, and into the present day, this talk uncovers the myths, mishaps, and monsters that shaped its curious legacy. Warning: this feature may include singing.  Expect useful (questionably so) insights into vampires, werewolves, and ghosts, alongside a whirlwind tour of a cabinet filled with dangerously peculiar artefacts. Blending occult lore, monster-hunting trivia, and the real-life escapades of NIMPH agents, this is a delightfully irreverent dive into a world where the strange is simply business as usual.
13:00	TEAPOT RACING	Road Transport Building	Try your hand at the exciting steampunk pastime of racing teapots. Yes, it is every bit as mad as it sounds (ask the Mad Hatter!)
13:30	BELLY FUSION DANCE COLLECTIVE	The Green	Belly Fusion will perform for your delight and amazement on the green. Not to be missed.
14:00	TEA DUELLING	St Saviour's Church	Have a go at the famous steampunk way to resolve disputes. Tea will be poured and biscuits will be eaten.
14:15	PHOTOSHOOT	Swanwick Station	16440 will pull into Swanwick junction at 14:10 for 35 minutes, departing 14:45. We invite anyone wearing a fairytale themed costume to come along to Swanwick Junction for a group photo alongside the train.
14:45	WILLOW WAND WEAVING	Johnson's Building	Suitable for all ages, Michelle will help you weave a wand from willow and ribbons, suitable for casting spells for the rest of the day.
